

COUNTRY

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Removal goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Passport copy - identification pages only - Authorization letter for Custom Clearance – available from FIDI Partner - Inventory / packing list 	Import Declaration	AWB / OBL – Client's name must be the same as on the passport. C/O FIDI Partner
Automobiles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Used Automobiles prohibited - New automobiles may be imported and subject to a substantial government tax. 	-The original purchase invoice and insurance certificate are required.	Used automobiles cannot be imported into Macau. New vehicles with both left-hand and right-hand drive may be imported, but must be handled by a professional automobile importer.
Wine & Liquor Tax	- A detailed wine list with quantity, brand name, type, volume, alcohol %, price per bottle and total value is required.	Alcohol and Wine: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Liquor with an alcoholic strength of more than 30% by volume measured at a temperature of 20C – 100% duty - Liquor other than wine with an alcoholic strength of not more than 30% by volume measured at a temperature of 20C – 0% duty - Wine – 0% duty * If insufficient information available, MOP 160 per liter may be assessed. Import of any type of alcohol even if duty free may cause a customs examination with additional costs and delays.	An incoming passenger is allowed to bring in without declaration the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 1 liter of grape wine or beverages of alcoholic strength by alcohol volume not exceeding 30%. -1 liter of beverages of alcoholic strength by volume exceeding 30%vol.
Firearms and Dangerous Goods	- Firearm Certificate from Police prior to arrival.	- Items require a valid firearm certificate issued to the owner by the Police Authorities controlling the area in which transferee intends to live.	Sending guns and ammunition to Macau is highly discouraged. Explosives and fireworks prohibited.
Food	- N/A, please see remarks	- N/A	Non-perishable food items for personal use may be imported in small amounts in cans or other durable packaging.
Pets	An import permit is required by the Animal Healthy Department.	- Import license required	Quarantine may be required depending on the type of animal and the country of origin. Check with FIDI Partner prior to shipping.

COUNTRY

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Drugs and medicine	- N/A, please see remarks		Items are not allowed to be imported in household goods shipments. The local authorities recommend every day medicines be hand carried.
Personal computers and printers	- N/A, please see remarks		Normal home PC & laptop computers do not required an import permit; but all software must be original under the copyright law.